Initiation Guide – GLOBAL WICCA TRADITION

<http://www.globalwicca.com>

WICCANING:

If someone wants to be a religion they only have to subscribe to the WICCAN belief or faith by patronizing the temple and the tradition. They do not have to learn rituals or practice healing or take up Initiation. They can be recipients of healing and followers of the religion. They are guided by Clergy of the Wiccan Tradition (Priests and Priestesses) who act as their healers, mentors, teachers and advisers. They can also utilize the tradition's temple and its products and services.

The Global Wicca Tradition provides free Wiccaning service to one and all who need to declare themselves as a Wiccan believer and follower. The person who desires to be a Wiccan may fill up the WICCANING form submit to the tradition or its Priesthood who will perform the Wiccaning service

DEDICATION:

If someone wishes to learn the Wiccan healing techniques, spells and rituals they are required to dedicate themselves to one year and one day of learning and practice under supervision of their teacher and mentors, online or offline. During this period they undergo probation and are required to attend and learn rituals and carry our required assignments and projects as an apprentice.

INITIATION:

After one year and one day of probation during which the courses for the particular degree are completed, the dedicant has a choice of Initiation. This is suggested only if the dedicant wants to be a part of the tradition and join its inner circle to learn further, to serve the goddess through the temple and to work as a team with the entire temple. If the dedicant so desires and if the tradition tests and finds the dedicant well qualified, dedicated and deserving of Initiation, Clergyhood is conferred to the dedicant who becomes an Initiate as Reverend (Rev.) of the first degree, second degree or third degree Priest/ Priestess of the temple. Dedication does not automatically lead to Initiation.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF INITIATES:

First Degree Initiates can Wiccanise people and provide service to the public as per their degree status and courses completed. They can also mentor other First Degree students and help the temple through their service and dedication. They can also serve as suppliers, distributors and patrons of the temple's brand. They are required to be an ambassador of the tradition and to promote its temple, brand and services at all times. They can take guidance from Second Degree Clergy.

Second Degree Initiates can provide additional services as permitted by their lessons learnt and their degree status. They are also required to take a leading role in the temple and guide other initiates who are at first degree level through their example of service and dedication. They can also serve as suppliers, distributors and patrons of the temple's brand. They are required to take a lead in promotion of the temple, brand and services at all times. They can take guidance from Third Degree Clergy.

Third Degree Initiates may be given the title of High Priestess/ Priest who is allowed to start own temple under the Global Wicca Tradition and teach/ initiate others in addition to providing various services on behalf of the tradition. They are also allowed to be registered franchisees so that they can start their own temple under the tradition. They are powers and responsibilities for the management and growth of the temple. They work directly under the tradition head Lady Astra.

IMPORTANT ETHICAL NOTE FOR STUDENTS MEMBERS AND TEMPLE CLERGY:

- The Global Wicca Tradition and The Earth Healing Temple are supported by our retail brand Magick through which we offer all our services and are able to function.
- You are NOT allowed to promote your own or any other services or products directly or indirectly to other members, students and patrons of the Global Wicca Tradition and its retail brand Magick.
- Magick and Tarot India Network are registered Trade Marks and cannot be used by any person, student or otherwise in any form or with a similar sounding name to promote any personal products and services.
- You are allowed to partner with the tradition as a professional service provider, franchise, distributor or supplier only as per mutual agreement. All students may not be given this privilege.
- You are NOT allowed to share the course materials with anyone in any form unless you are a registered franchisee of our services authorized to train others under our brand as per our rules, policies and franchise agreement.
- To be a Wiccan follower of Global Wicca, you do not require an initiation into the Clergyhood of our Tradition. You do need to have an understanding of Wicca and there is a WICCA GUIDE freely available for your study at our temple. You can simply be a patron of our Temple and its products, services or perform a prayer freely in our temple anytime as a Wicca follower or Wiccan.
- NOTE ON INITIATION: Initiation is not merely an introduction to Wicca. Initiation implies attainment of Clergyhood in the Global Wicca Tradition or its Temples. Initiation indicates becoming a Priest or Priestess of a Temple. This is not mandatory for every student or follower of Global Wicca. Tradition's special signs, secrets and symbols of power and the energy of its special rituals are passed only to the Initiate and cannot be revealed to anyone else. You are encouraged to take an initiation only if you intend to be a loyal disciple, a temple priest/ priestess and to take a clear role in the Temple by helping in its day to day management. Initiation is offered only after a one year and one day period of probation in which we assess your dedication and allow you to sequentially complete certain courses. During the training, probation, initiation as well as after the initiation you are required to be active in spreading goodwill about the Tradition and helping the Tradition in its services and management in any way you can, as well as help us raising funds by propagating our retail brand and its offerings. There are three levels of initiation and therefore three degrees of Wiccan clergy offered by our Temple, each one with exceeding rank and stature. You will need to submit a form and identity proof and will receive an ID. Your ID can be revoked at any time on account of misconduct or violation of trust.
- If you are unable to take up initiation please do the courses for your information only. You can choose any one course at any time by registering the same on the website or in person. You will however not receive the energy of Initiation or entry into some of our special Wiccan Rituals which are for Clergy training and practice.
