The Quest of Liberation

Attainment of Liberation is considered to be the great quest of every human soul. Yet we find that throughout the growth and development of a human incarnate, there is little importance given to this goal in our modern society.

A child is normally asked—What would you like to be when you grow up....? All through conventional education the main aim is to program the child to be a certain profession. Slowly the programming results in the formation of a certain definition that the person gives himself as an adult. An identification is created which is normally strong and seemingly solid.

But there are times when this illusion that we create is shattered....when there is a crisis, when we lose our jobs or careers, when we cannot function any longer as per the definition we had created when we started out in our adult life.

These are the moments when we realize just who we are, and just how we are not limited to being 'anything' at all. Crisis gives us the opportunity to truly find that part of ourselves that is constant, infinite and eternal, which has survived numerous destructions and yet remained the same, that which creates our definitions and identification, the powerful source of all our being, the One. As the illusion is destroyed it is time to know the Truth. To know ourselves, to be liberated.

Blessed Be

"No matter how negative it seems, the Tower card is actually a powerful symbol"

MEDITATION – THE TOWER CARD

No matter how negative it seems, the Tower card is actually a powerful symbol that can help us understand and heal ourselves. Create your own silent space within you. Take a good look at the Tower card and take back your memory to the time when you had suffered a blow of some kind. It could be emotional, financial, mental...just anything that had struck you like calamity. Experience it fully once again, reliving that time through all your senses. Feel the emotions you went through then. Now consider yourself as you are now. What have you learnt through that experience. Know that you have survived that phase successfully. Not only that, you are also wiser, more mature, stronger a person than you thought you were before that incident had happened. Thank the Divine force that flows within you for all the knowledge and enlightenment you have received through the numerous journeys and experiences of your soul.

Blessed Be
