A Ray of Hope

Is our future predestined or do we have a choice? Can wishes become realities? To what extent? In the tug of war between destiny and free-will who wins finally?

These are the questions that have haunted mankind for centuries.

The Truth is that we are powerful enough to create exactly what we aspire to.

Our powers may be expressed or may remain latent for most our lives, hidden in the subconscious, but sometimes revealed to us in our dreams, intuitions and psychic visions.

In our evolution we learn how to increase our free-will by allowing more and more of our subconscious knowledge and powers to come into the light. We see how our positive expectations can actually create our desired future.

The Star from Sacred Circle Tarot

A liberated individual is aware of the infinite power that he contains within....the very forces that have created the universe and are shaping and structuring 'reality' constantly. Liberating ourselves involves freeing ourselves of our limited self concepts and embracing the divine light.

We learn that phenomenal amount of abundance and bliss exists in the cosmos at all times and can be tapped by us at any point we choose...that we always have a choice to take the exact part we want in this wonderful play of life... and the best time to begin is Now.

Bright Blessings

MY TAROT JOURNEY - By Pragathi Priyadev Member Tarot India Network

My experience with tarot has been a rather mystical one.... Tarot is after all very divine.

After I started doing Tarot professionally I received many clients with varied problems and issues.

One particular client and the solution which tarot provided really stands out from all other.

A unmarried girl came to visit me. She was very depressed because her parents were searching for a prospective groom for her and she was in love with some guy of a different community, which her parents were totally against.

While reading her cards, I told her that this guy will not marry her. He only fakes that he loves her, he does not have necessary courage to marry her.

I also told her that she will have arranged marriage within this year. She was very disappointed with my readings and left soon.

After a month I received her call, she told me that the guy she was in love with was cheating on her. She even told me her parents have found a doctor guy and wanted her to marry him.

I checked her cards again and told her that the guy is very good and will keep her very happy.

Today she is happily married to him. It has been two months now. She really thanked me for guiding her and giving her timely advice.

But it was actually God or Divine guiding and giving her advice with the aid of Tarot. I was just a channel or medium.

I feel so glad that today i can heal so many lives.

"Thank you God and thank you Tarot."

"I feel so glad that today I can heal so many lives."

"When you look at The Star card waves of bliss and beauty are passed on to you"

MEDITATION - THE STAR CARD

The Star is of course a favorite for most tarot practitioners when it comes to meditation and visualization.

When you look at The Star card waves of bliss and beauty are passed on to you. The soothing, healing and tranquil vibrations take you to a higher dimension, of hopes, dreams and aspirations.

As you gaze into the card, visualize an important goal that you have. Now close your eyes and create an image of exactly what you want. Allow it to come to life. Feel and experience it as real-ly as possible, as if it is actually happening in the present moment. Whenever you have focused enough, visualize this image turning into a star. Let this star float out of you into the sky above, into the higher realms where the Divine powers are at work and where our dreams are converted to reality. Know that your goal will certainly come to pass if it is for the benefit of all concerned and harms none.

Blessed Be
