AWAKENING

Most of our lives we keep receiving the fruits of our past actions, numerous, from our present life to our past lives. Within us is the seed but we do not know how it grows and what fruits it bears as the tree of our life. All of our past life karma is recorded in the DNA of this plant. All our present life karma is also being re-recorded and will be carried forward in the new DNA being created and carried within the seeds of the fruit of this plant. Thus continues the chain of karma from one life to another but we are seldom born with awareness of our karmic past. It all lies buried inside us, held deep inside the darkness of matter awaiting the light so that it can know itself.

Our awakening is like the blooming of a beautiful flower. This flower is no longer trapped into the limitations placed upon it through its past karmic entanglement. It is free of the burdens that it once bore. By choosing to learn about our highest self and to act through it, we are able to free ourselves from the trapping of the past. Now our life is our conscious choice and not something we create subconsciously. As fully awake and alert beings we know each moment of our life is up-to us. Our happiness is our choice. It no longer depends on other people, things or past unfulfilled desires. We choose to be happy now and to create new goals created through our highest self, new visions seen through our eyes wide open and a new dawn of our consciousness.

Blessed Be

MEDITATION WITH THE JUDGMENT CARD

Judgment, a card of great transformation, of uniting with our highest self, can be used for the purpose of communicating with your angelic guides.

Just look at the card and focus on the concept of awakening your higher self. It is necessary you play meditative music while doing this. As you listen to the music try to hear the voice of your higher self talking to you. Do not make any presumptions to how this may come to you. The voice may be male, female or that of a nonhuman or an otherworldly entity. You may hear sounds or clear words. The more you relax the clearer the voice will become.

Here you are using your psychic clairaudience powers to connect with your higher self. If you are unable to hear anything take a deep breath and release it gently. Say affirmations such as, “I listen to the voice of my higher self. It is easy for me to connect with my angelic guides and spiritual beings. I clearly communicate with them right now. I am open to listening to my soul and the higher reality.”

Wait for a few minutes in a meditative state. As you communicate your desire to converse with the angelic powers they are sure to hear you and to communicate back to you in some way. It is necessary you note down what you heard or felt or experienced in any manner once you complete this exercise. Note everything in your journal. Thank your guides and higher self for the experience and let them know that you intend to connect with them even more deeply in future.

Blessed Be

2009 Predictions by Tarot India Network Members taken in Nov 2008

Mumbai Predictions for 2009

By Chhaya, Shivo, Pankaja

Cards drawn course: Page of Wands, 3 of Cups

According to the tarot readers who drew these cards, Mumbai will mostly face political turmoil. There could be some kind of a people's war. Bomb blasts are likely in Mumbai in 2009.

By the end of the year the new political party which will be formed will be for good.

Citizens will work towards creating a better environment.

Financially there will be both ups and downs. Money will be coming in from outside of the city.

Mumbai will continue to be the land of opportunity. There will be a large inflow of people.

There is also another piece of good news. There are no flood related problems expected next year as per the predictions of this trio.

India Predictions for 2009

By Ashutosh, Swati and Yash

Cards Drawn include: The Empress, The Devil, Death

According to this group, there will be interesting upheavals this year. A political shift is indicated. There is possibility of terrorism in 2009 as shown by the 3 of swords card. Multiple attacks are likely.

Real estate situation can be better but the shortage of land in key cities ensures that prices remain high and banks will not relent in reducing rates too much as shown by the Devil card. Citizens will face shortage of funds and lack of financial freedom.

The Death card indicates the business situation undergoes phenomenal transformation. There will be a need to let go of the obsolete. Many businesses may be closing down. After some time things get better. There will be political turbulence among certain fundamentalist parties who try to divide people. A terrorism situation which is similar to the past may appear. However the fight against terrorism will gain momentum and some achievements will be there.

India needs to set its priorities right. If it has to be a light unto the world spiritually it has to also be strong materially and focus on creating prosperity for the people of the country. In a time when the world is feeling impoverished we can prove that abundance is a state of the mind and can be created even in the worse situations. There has to be a focus on Oneness and fight against corruption.

World Predictions for 2009

By Falgunie, Mona, Viraaj and Rafique

Cards Drawn include: 2 of Wands, The Sun, 6 of Wands

The world seems to be headed for change. After June there seems to be an economic shift. Some sort of leveling of the situation which is recognised as a major crisis taking over the world economy today. Things can be much more balanced as the year progresses. Climate will be going into extremes. No major disasters to the extent of the previous years. Politically there is threat of assassination of a major political leader possibly in South Africa. There may be a change of government in that country. Tibet will see that conditions are put forward that help in freeing the land through integrated international efforts and UN. The Knight of wands indicates that there will be major strides and advancements in technology especially regarding transportation means and space travel/ exploration. Energy conservation methods will be discovered.
