YOU ARE THE WORLD

Expand yourself...rather expand your understanding of yourself...

That you are separate or apart from the rest of the world is an illusion created by your mind.

The truth is that you are The One. You are the universe in its totality. The manifest world is your body and the infinite divine is your soul.

You are dancing the eternal dance of life, constantly changing form, taking infinite shapes in every moment. You are the rain, the sun and the moon. The stray dog in your lane, the beggar on the traffic signal, the child in the playground....are all aspects of your consciousness.

They are not different from you through your mind believes they are. Whatever your mind believes becomes true for you. This is 'maya'—an illusion. You create your own reality—rather you create your own illusion. What you manifest in your life is your choice, the place you live, the work you do, the friends you have, the person you marry, are all aspects of yourself that you have chosen to experience..... rest all beings those you have not chosen to experience in this given moment. But they are also you—the lost parts of you that you are yet to find, love, accept integrate...

You are the world in totality and each part of the world is within your direct imperium. You are a magician—a witch who is choosing a unique experience for yourself. Know yourself.

Blessed Be

MEDITATION WITH THE WORLD CARD

Observe the World card. Notice how you feel about the world today. Are you upset, sad, unhappy about anything in the world. Is there anything about it that disturbs you. Terrorism, economic recession, poverty, infidelity, child abuse, infanticide, pollution, global warming,Also reflect on those aspects of the world that you are happy about—try to focus your mind on the positive features of the world that you wish to see more of. Now focus within yourself. Try to understand that you have the power within you to affect the world around you. The outer world is as related with your inner world as the inner world relates with the outer. As you drift into a meditative state by this time you will be able to channel a great amount of cosmic energy by connecting with your higher self—the part of you which knows and understands that you are the world. This part of you has infinite powers and can achieve anything as long as it is for the highest good. Know that you have the power to affect reality through the magic of this expanded consciousness. Feel the energy flowing from top of your head all the way into your spine and circulating within you. Concentrate this energy in your palms and feel the powerful vibrations. Now focus on what positive changes you would like to create in the world—more trees, prosperity, ecological balance, joy, peace between nations, safety, beauty and cleanliness, equality...through the palms of your hand send all this energy into the World card. Visualize strongly the world transforming into a happy one with all the wonderful things that are creating right now through your inner powers. Ask your higher self to manifest this reality in the world for the highest good of all concerned and with harm to none. Now release any excess energy into earth through your palms as you place them on the floor knowing that you have already created a wonderful reality in the world and this will surely manifest. Do not worry about when and how it will happen and know that it will all be done at the right time. Blessed Be! (*) Swati Prakash
